*Zanzibar: No overt opposition to the Tanganyika-Zanzibar union has yet developed.

Foreign Minister Babu is scheduled to arrive in Nairobi this afternoon and is expected in Zanzibar tomorrow morning. Before leaving Pakistan he told reporters that in principle he favored Zanzibar's union with Tanganyika. His statement should reduce for the moment the threat of violence on the island.

The articles of union signed by President Nyerere and Karume on 22 April call for Tanganyika to retain the powers of foreign affairs, defense, internal security, foreign credit, and development planning. Zanzibar will have less than sovereign status but more autonomy in local affairs than Tanganyika's other regions. Karume will become a vice president of the union.

NOTES

25X1 *North Vietnam - South Vietnam: [REDACTED] 25X1
[REDACTED] has provided some details on the movement of arms and ammunition from North Vietnam to the south. According to his information, supplies are first trucked to the Laotian border, where they are boxed, and then carried on bicycles through Laos to a point on the South Vietnam border, usually near Route 9 in Thua Thien Province. Viet Cong civilian labor teams pick up the boxes there and move them to consignment points inside South Vietnam. [REDACTED] 25X1
